BARRE MAN MARRIED.

Lester Holt and Gretchen M. Sperry of Albany, N. Y., wedded.
The Worcester, N. Y., Times contains the following account of the marriage of Lester Holt, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Holt of 4 Cliff street, Barre, to Gretchen M. Sperry of Albany, N. Y.:

A very pretty home wedding occurred at high noon Wednesday, Aug. 16, 1922, at the home of Diantha Eitapee, 1 South Allen street, Albany,

N. Y., in the presence of about 25 friends of the two families, when her niece, Gretchen M. Sperry of Albany, was united in marriage to Lester Holt of Vermont.

The home was prettily decorated with golden glow and goldenrod, the color scheme being yellow and white. Miss Charlotte Johnson of Albany sang "O, Promise Me," in a very pleasing manner. Miss Mildred Dickson entertained with several selections and played the wedding march.

The bride wore a gown of white canton crepe, her tulle veil caught with orange blossoms and carried an arm bouquet of white rosebuds. Miss Mildred Sperry of Davenport, a cousin of the bride, as bridesmaid, wore yellow organdie and large white hat and carried pale pink rosebuds. The maid of honor, Miss Bernice Sperry, a sister of the bride, was gowned in peach organdie. The best man was Donald Sperry, brother of the bride.

The bride received many beautiful and valuable gifts, including money, silverware, china, linen and electrical appliances. The groom's gift to the bride was pearls, and to the best man cuff links. The bride's gift to the groom was cuff links and to the bridesmaid, a rhinestone bracelet. After congratulations and a bountiful and delicious luncheon, the happy couple departed amid a shower of confetti, for Boston, Barre, Vt., and other places. On their return they will reside in Albany.

THE DAYLIGHT STORE,
188 North Main Street, Barre, Vt.

September opens the door for Autumn

Midsummer dullness has passed and the crisp fall days are just around the corner. The new season is well on its way and clever people anticipate the days on the calendar, make their purchases early and thus shorten the time of waiting. Women enjoy (and men too, for that matter) the pleasure of setting aside the clothes of summer and putting on smart new apparel for fall.

Even children are happy in the thought of going back to school, for all the stimulating activities and the gladness comradeships that school days hold. Happy in the thought that the near approach of school opening means "new toggery" which they so much desire.

In this big store

An interesting procession has begun

Almost daily new things are arriving—indeed an interesting procession—and there will be constant interest for you on any day or any hour that you find it most convenient to come in.

NEW HATS. NEW DRESSES.
NEW SKIRTS. NEW PETTICOATS.
NEW BLOOMERS. NEW SCARFS, ETC.

BLANKETS —about two hundred

VALUE

Gray or white with pink and blue borders—
Double bed size, 64x76 inches—Slightly irregular.

Price 95c each
6 for 5.50

Bought direct from the mill last June before the recent advances in price of cotton and cotton goods—these blankets are of good weight and size and it is only because they are slightly imperfect, that we can sell them at this very low price. In most instances the imperfections are barely noticeable and do not in any way impair their usefulness.
All on sale on special tables, street floor—where customers may conveniently make their purchases.

Apron Dresses Special Values at 95c

Seven or eight styles in checked, striped and figured percales of good quality—some straight line effects—others with elastic and belted waist—some tie back with sash—braided and rick-rack trimmed.

Coughs Disturb School Work.

School teachers should give the same advice to children who have coughs as this Florida teacher. "I recommended Foley's Honey and Tar to the children in my school who had the 'flu' and good results came whenever it was used," writes Mrs. L. Armstrong, Okaloosa, Florida. Foley's Honey and Tar contains no opiates—ingredients printed on the wrapper. Stood the test of time serving three generations. Quickly relieves colds, coughs and croup, throat, chest and bronchial trouble. Sold everywhere—adv.
